The Delineator

Each twelve months offers the well dressed woman of the country a wonderful library of ideas in woman's dress. It is also full of practical home ideas that will aid the woman who needs to make a dollar go as far as possible The constant aim of the editors is to have the delineator suit itself in its various departments to every range of purse.

No dress idea is inserted except after a discussion between artists and experts in each line It will prove interesting to the thoughtful readers of the Delineator thus to learn of the scrutinizing care that is expended in the selection of the material to be used While it is being prepared there is a discussion over each paragraph throughout its pages. For instance, the description of a pattern undergoes eight revisions before being printed. This thoroughness of detail has been now proving its thoroughness of detail has been now proving its merit to the women of the land for overtwenty-seven years. What is the result?

The Delineator is found in five hundred thousand homes each month. It is woman's indispensable magazine. Single copies for sale and subscriptions taken by

TO KILL OFF THE DEMOCRATS.

GOLDEN SAYS THAT WAS THE SCHEME OF CONSPIRATORS.

Brought Down the Mountaineers for that Purpose, but it all Ended in the Death of Goebel.

Frankfort, March 24—"John Powers told me they had two niggers here to kill Goebel. They were Hooker Smith and Dick Coombs." This statement was made today by F. Wharton Golden, a frail, consumptive-looking Kentucky mountaineer, while on the witness stand in the preliminary examination of Secretary of State Caleb Powers, charged with conspiracy to kill Goebel. Golden told a story of the events leading up to the murder that, if substantiated, will, in the minds of those connected with the prosecution at least probably go far toward proving the contentions of the commonwealth that the murder was the result of a plan in which several prominent men were involved. Whether the defense will seek to impeach Golden's testimony in this preliminary examination, is not known, as the attorneys for the defense will not talk on the subject, unless such attempt is made the commonwealth will rest its case, both County Attorney Polsgrove and Attorney Campbell being satisfied that enough evidence have been presented to hold the defendant on the charges. Golden, who claims to have been a friend to Secretary Powers and his brother, John Powers, for years, gave testimony that was particularly damaging to John Powers, but he also brought in the names of many others, including Charles Finley, W. H. Culton and Governor Taylor in his story of the bringing of the mountaineers to Frankfort previous to the assassination. Governor Taylor, however, was not directly implicated and the attorneys for the commonwealth intimated today that they do not expect to have his name brought forth prominently in the story of the alleged conspiracy.

Golden's testimony tended to show that a plan was made to bring several hundred "regular mountain feudists" to Frankfort, who would, if necessary, as Golden expressed it, "go into the legislative hall and kill off enough Democrats to make it our way." The testimony did not show that the alleged plot to kill Goebel was part of the original plan, nor did it connect the names of those who conceived that idea, but the commonwealth sought to show by Golden's conversations with various people that not only John and Caleb Powers, but others as well, had full knowledge of the alleged plan of assassination.

It is about four months before they can expect any rain in India. How much suffering and how many deaths will occur! Let us out of gratitude to our heavenly Father for our abundance give something to these poor suffering ones. Our Savior said, "Give that asketh thee," and these starving ones are looking to christian America for help. Shall we dissappoint them and shatter their faith in our religion. THE CORRESPONDENTS MUZZLED

INDICATIONS ARE THAT BULLER HAS BEGUN TO MOVE.

Believed That Fighting Will Begin—Boers are Recruiting French Holland, And Belgium Soldiers

London, March 26—Buller's activity in Natal has centered an interest in that point. There is every indication that a battle will soon be fought. Correspondents there have been muzzled for a fortnight. Fighting, however, is reported at Elandslaagte which is practically the scene of the former battle. It is believed from this that Buller's advance has already begun.

London, March 26—Robert's halt is best explained on the supposition that it is necessary that the proclamation be given time to make itself felt. Annoyance to his line of communication may be occasioned unless the territory behind the advancing columns is rendered absolutely secure.

Bloemfontein, March 26—Reinforcements to Roberts are pouring in on the trains every day. Officers believe that the advance will begin in two weeks.

London, March 26—A Lorenzo Marquez dispatch says that the Transvaal authorities are evidently recruiting actively as large numbers of French, Hollanders and Belgium volunteers constantly passing that place to join the Boer forces.

BROTHER LINNEY'S BUSINESS.

He Gets Leave of Absence For Ten Days to Look After Important Matters.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, March 26—Ex-representative Pearson, of North Carolina, who is the contestant for the seat in the house of representative Crawford, and who has been in the city for the greater portion of the time since the assembling of congress, has gone to his home in North Carolina to attend to some business matters in which he is interested. He will return to the city in time to be here when his case is called up for action in the house.

Friends of Mr. Pearson say that the report of the elections committee will be in favor of seating him in place of Mr. Crawford, though the vote in the committee of elections before which the contest is pending will be quite close, and the result may hinge on the attitude of only one member of the committee.

The case of General Walker against Congressman Rhea, involving the title of the seat from the Ninth Virginia district is likely to be reported from the committee on elections to the house within a few days, and it is believed the report of the committee will be in favor of General Walker. Arguments in this case were heard the other day, but the committee has not yet voted on its report, and will not do so probably before next year.

Representative Linney, of North Carolina, has been granted leave of absence for ten days on account of important business, which requires his absence from the national capital.

Deductions from the Bond Sale.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

It will be remembered that about a year ago there were some people in Greensboro who were quite positive that the legislative act providing for the bond issue was defective and that the bonds would not sell on that account. We will not undertake to say how much more the bonds would have sold for if they had not been discredited by some of our own people in the manner suggested above, but it speaks volumes for the credit of the city that a part of the bonds have sold for 111 19 in spite of the dark, gloomy, despairing prognostications that went out from Greensboro last spring as a warning to would-be purchasers of our bonds. Nemesis.

New National Banks.

Washington, March 26—Applications to organize national banks which were approved include Merchants and Mechanic bank, Columbus, Ga., to convert into Merchants National of Columbus, capital $100,000. HE LOVED TO FIGHT.

A LITTLE MAN WHO WOULD RATHER SHOOT THAN EAT.

"The gamest man and the best fighter that I ever knew—and I've known quite a number in my day—was little Jack Watson of California," remarked Senator William M. Stewart of Nevada one day in Washington when he was in a story telling mood to a party of interested listeners.

"Watson had been a member of Jack Hayes' famous company, and, though he didn't weigh over 120 pounds and in height measured but 5 feet 6 inches, he would fight at the drop of a hat the biggest man that ever breathed. I don't know what state gave him birth, but he was a native of the south, and all the pioneers of Texas knew him well.

"The little chap didn't provoke difficulties, but I verily believe he enjoyed fighting for its own sake, and odds didn't figure with him once he concluded to go into a melee. His long suit was shooting, and a deadlier shot never fingered a revolver.

"I shall never forget the first time that Jack Watson and I met, for the circumstance was of the sort that burns itself upon a man's memory. I was riding into a mining camp in Nevada county and stopped at a watering trough to let my beast drink. About the same time a stranger of very diminutive stature rode up, and while our animals refreshed themselves we engaged in some casual conversation. The stranger was Watson.

"Before we exchanged half a dozen sentences our attention was attracted by a great noise, and, looking around, we saw at least 200 men coming our way with a prisoner. The prisoner was a remarkably fine looking man, but his captors had stripped him to the waist, and the evident intention was to dog him.

"Before I could hardly realize what was happening Watson spoke up, 'Dare you go in with me and stop these men?' It seemed bravado, but there was a ring in the small one's voice that sounded like business, and I, being young and foolish, answered, 'I dare.'

"We rushed after the mob at racing speed, and when I got close enough to the leaders I yelled at the top of my lungs: 'Hold on, boys; you've got the wrong man!'

"This was an inspiration, for I really knew nothing of the case, but I hated to see such a magnificent looking fellow undergo the humiliation of a public beating. But my cry caused a halt, and with Watson beside me I repeated that they had the wrong man and, still using my highest notes, called for the appointment of a committee.

"It is curious how easily a mob is sometimes swayed. In less than ten minutes this one, previously so impassioned, had calmed down and was listening quietly to the investigations of the committee, of which I had been made chairman.

"It seems that the prisoner was, as I apprehended, a respectable and worthy man, and he had letters upon him that vouched for his integrity. He had been accused of stealing $200 in gold by a miner, but we not only established his innocence, but started an examination that led to the discovery of the real thief.

"After this I saw Jack no more till one day in San Francisco, when I found him in a most wretched condition. He had gone to a political meeting where he was persona non grata, and there was immediate trouble. Jack killed two men, but was himself almost riddled with bullets. An old negro took me to him, and I found him in an apparently dying condition. If he had one bullet hole in him, he had 20. He had no doctor, no nurse, no food, no friend but the old darky.

"I got him a room in a good hotel and the best physician money could hire. The doctor thought he had a bare chance to live, but was very dubious of his pulling through. His nerve saved him, and in a few weeks he was going around as game as ever.

"The next news of Jack came from Pasadena. He had gone to a ball and, aspiring to the favor of the belle of the town, roused the enmity of a dozen young gallants. The shooting began while the function was still in progress, but it was a bad day for Jack Watson's assailants, for when the firing ceased there were five of them corpses, while he escaped unhurt.

"Jack finally became a member of the legislature and, strange to say, died a peaceful death, respected and loved by all his neighbors."—Washington Post.

Cautious Precedure.

"Colonel, if you called a man a liar, you would surely expect a fight, would you not?" asked the stranger from the north.

"No, sah," replied the colonel. "We don't call a man a liah down heah until we have shot him fust, sah, so full of holes that there is no fight in him, sah."—Indianapolis Press.

A DOUBLE LYNCHING.

A White Man and a Negro Hanged by a Virginia Mob.

Richmond, March 24—The reign of excitement in Greenville county culminated today in a double lynching at Emporia. Both Cotton, the negro who, according to his own confession, killed Saunders and Welton, and O'Grady, the white man who was with him in the house when the killing occurred, were hanged by an infurated mob, variously estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000 strong. This morning the sheriff of the county discharged from duty the military that had been sent from this city at his request, and Major Cutchins, in command of the troops, notified Governor Tyler stating at the same time that he believed that if the prisoners were left unprotected by the military they would be lynched. The governor replied as follows:

"The sole responsibility is on the sheriff. If he orders you to withdraw, you can do nothing but obey. We have done everything possible to uphold the law and prevent mob violence, and are still prepared to render any aid necessary. Have recalled train with Captain Cheatwood's company, and will again dismiss them. Will arrange with railroad to bring your men back."

Accordingly, Major Cutchins entrained his men and started for Richmond. This was about 11 o'clock. Hardly was the special out of sight when a mob entered the jail, took Cotton, hanged him to the limb of a tree and fired several shots into his body.

Later, despite the protests of cooler heads, who claimed that the guilt of the white man had not been established, another crowd, composed largely of negroes, entered the jail, overcame the resistance of the few that tried to protect O'Grady, took him out and hanged him also.

THE MOB HELD SWAY.

In its indignation at the lynching of a negro and a white man Saturday, at Emporia, the Richmond Times of yesterday said this:

The mob ran riot in Virginia yesterday and trampled the law under foot. Every law-abiding citizen of Virginia hangs his head in shame, for the old commonwealth has been disgraced. The mob and the officers of the law were brought face to face in an issue involving both the life of prisoners in the hands of the law and the organic law of the state, but the officers of the law tamely submitted and the mob triumphed.

It is openly asserted that those who were sworn to uphold the law, the judge of the county court of Greensville and the sheriff of Greensville, entered into an agreement with the leaders of the mob to send away the troops who had been sent by the governor of the state to preserve law and order and let the mob take the state's prisoners out of jail and hang them to a tree without law. Before any compromise of this sort had been agreed to, before this outrage had been permitted, every soldier in this state should have been called to Emporia prepared to defend the peace and dignity of the commonwealth with his blood.

But the worst has not been told yet. The governor of the state of Virginia permitted his troops to be withdrawn in full knowledge of the fact that as soon as they should be withdrawn the state's prisoner would be taken from the jail by the mob and lynched, and before those troops reached Richmond the man was lynched.

We have the kindest personal regard for Governor Tyler, and it distresses us beyond expression to be compelled to speak thus plainly about his action in this case. But we must speak. The state of Virginia has been disgraced and Governor Tyler is responsible for it. There is no escape for the governor from this charge, much as we hate to make it.

Now the Richmond Times is a paper that has a reputation for justice, deliberation and conservatism to sustain, and hence a statement like this by it is a very serious matter, extremely serious for those persons receiving the condemnation of the Times

It seems that there was a collusion between the sheriff and the mob for the purpose of getting the military out of the way, and the Governor weakly yielded under the pretense that it was the sheriff's duty to say when troops were or were not needed. Mayor Cutchins, in command of the troops, after having been told by the sheriff that the troops were not needed, wired the Governor as follows:

"Hold company at armory. Everything quiet this morning. We will soon be discharged. Without protection the prisoner will be lynched. Shall I obey orders and leave?" To this the governor replied: "The sole responsibility is on the sheriff. If he orders you to withdraw you can do nothing but obey. We have done everything possible to uphold law and prevent mob violence and are still prepared to render any aid necessary."

To this, the Times, in the same editorial quoted from, replies:

It mattered not what the sheriff of Greenville county said; it mattered not what the judge of the county court of Greenville said, Governor Tyler knew as well as a man could know anything, having been so informed by Major Cutchins in command, that the moment those troops were withdrawn, that moment the mob would be in full sway and that the state's prisoner would be swung to a tree.

Mob violence is bad enough when the officers of the law are unable to prevent it, but when it occurs by their connivance, it is past all endurance. And it goes to show that mob rule cannot be tolerated in the slightest degree if we would not make the beginning which must end in such spectacles as the one which disgraced Virginia Saturday. There is progress in lynch law as in everything else. Begin by lynching for heinous crimes and let it be condoned, and you will end in lynching for trivial offences or in cases where guilt is wholly a matter of doubt.

Well, well, well. Listen to this special from Berlin:

The correspondent here of the Associated Press has interviewed capitalists who have large interests in the Transvaal. They say they do not believe the gold mines will be destroyed, adding that there is no dynamite there except what is in possession of the government. The claim that individuals could do no damage to the mines, and that the Transvaal government could not afford to prejudice its cause in the eyes of Europe by destroying the mines, over which German and French flags float in many cases.

Mines owned by French and German capitalists: What becomes of the favorite argument that England is destroying budding republicanism in South Africa for the mines? If she does destroy "feeble republics" she can hardly confiscate German and French property. One by one the dead leaves fall.

Our Washington correspondent informs us that Bre'r Linney has obtained a ten days leave of absence for the purpose of looking after important business. Of course this has nothing to do with the congressional nomination in "de ate."

As we opined, the Honorable Tom Watson replies to Mr. Henry Walter and says "I am out of politics." He might accept Mr. Walter's nomination as the middle-of-the-road candidate and still not be in politics.

LORD ROBERTS' PLANS

Expects to be Before Pretoria Before April—Has 110,000 Men.

Lord Roberts has now been more than ten days at Bloemfontein. He seems to wish to settle the country behind him before going on. Probably, too, he has extensive preparations to complete. His next campaign will go into the dry season, when the nights are often very cold and the veldt is dry and bare. He will want his men equipped for this season and his transport service qualified to be as near independent as possible of grass and water. The design no doubt is that General Buller, in the next advance, will move simultaneously with Lord Roberts. General Buller, perhaps, is not yet ready. Lord Roberts will shortly have the Eighth Division and may also form of the troops now available a new Tenth Division. He will then have in his own hands 70 000 men and General Buller will have 40,000. The former force need not necessarily be moving all on one line, for it would be as easy to form a third column to cross the Vaal river at Kimberly and turn any Boer defense on that river. In view of these figures and the known power of Lord Roberts as a leader, little importance is attached to the Boer declarations that they will make a big fight. If they stand before they are driven into Pretoria, it is expected they will be enveloped. They may defend Pretoria, but that will help them but little. It will be a question of weeks. Lord Roberts may be looked for north of the Vaal at the end of April and before Pretoria, if the Boers fall back to that place in the first half of May.

COLD STEEL OR DEATH

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is by an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wisconsin, by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous powers of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price fifty cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Congressman J. W. Bailey, Saturday, at Cameron, Texas, opened his campaign for the United States senate in opposition to Hon. Horace Clifton. A large number of prominent public men of Texas were present to hear him speak. The senatorship will be decided in the primaries for members of the legislature, a direct vote being taken.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE

The woman who is lovely in face form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A DOMESTIC EPISODE.

The Wife's Artistic Decoration of the Little Drawing Room.

When he got home that night, she confronted him at the door, and he gasped with horror. She was not dressed for dinner, and she had one arm in a sling. Both thumbs were done up in huge bandages. There was a towel tied around her tousled head and a cut over one of her eyes. The odor of liniment was heavy on the air.

"For heaven's sake what has happened?" he asked.

Without a word she led the way into the little drawing room. Over the cushioned couch oriental draperies had been dispersed artistically with spears and armor, forming a beautiful, cozy corner. A lamp, burning dimly, hung in the center.

"I put it up myself today," she said. "I had grown tired waiting for you to do it, and the decorators wanted $50."

He seated himself luxuriously among the pillows.

"How on earth did you manage it alone?" he asked, with exaggerated admiration and wonder. He knew just how it was done. He had always had to put it up himself before this.

"Oh, just a piece of lead pipe, a few tacks and a paper of pins!" she said simply, yet proudly. "I only fell off the stepladder twice."

There were almost tears in his voice when he spoke. It really touched him to see her standing there bandaged like a broken down race horse. Besides that, no one knew how he had dreaded the task of putting it up himself.

"Ah," he said, "when will we men realize what a priceless treasure we gain when we win the love of a true woman!"

He stretched out his arms affectionately toward her, and the entire thing collapsed about his head with a crash. —Kate Masterson in Life.

FUNNY HUMAN NATURE.

A Little Story That Illustrates Some of Its Peculiar Phases.

Young men can never tell where to look for an ally in their love affairs. A few afternoons ago one of them was leaving a handsome residence in the upper part of the city. He walked unsteadily, he will never be paler, and it was evident that he was in great trouble. He scarcely noticed the brisk approach of the old gentleman who owns the house and the daughter, though the suitor had been diligently dodging the father for months.

"Hello! What's this? Sick?" and the old gentleman firmly planted himself in the way of the retreating lover. "You're not fit to go out in this storm, young man. Come inside. Take a drop of cordial. What do you mean, risking your life like this?"

"Not there, sir," in a faint voice. "I'll never enter that house again. Your daughter just refused me."

Now the father had told her a score of times to "get rid of that chap," but he is sympathetic and choleric.

"What," pounding the walk with his cane, "refused you? Jilted you? Put you in this awful state? The minx! She'll hear from me! Look as though you were dying, poor fellow! How many times have you asked her?"

"Once."

"Only once? Thunderation, man, I'll bet I asked her mother 50,000 times before she'd have me! It's in the blood. Come in here. No, take a walk around the block and then come. The idea of that girl thinking that she knows her own mind! It's absurd! Brace up, now. We'll bring her to time."

And it looks as though they would. The old gentleman looks sheepish, the girl laughs often without apparent cause, and the youth calls regularly.—Detroit Free Press.

Tommy's Triumph.

"Please, sir," asked Tommy of his teacher, "what is meant by the 'soothing weed?'"

"Does your father smoke, Tommy?" asked the teacher.

"Yes, sir," answered Tommy.

"And what does he smoke?" asked the teacher.

"Bacca!" cried Tommy.

"Tobacco, you mean, Tommy," corrected teacher. "Well, tobacco is often called 'the soothing weed.' But it is tobacco, Tommy, not 'bacca.' There is no such word in the dictionary."

"Yes, there is, sir," cried Tommy.

"You're mistaken, Tommy, there is not," said teacher severely. "But," he added, with a superior smile, "if you can show me the word 'bacca' in an English dictionary I will let you home an hour earlier than usual."

Tommy seized his dictionary, hastily turned over the leaves and pointed triumphantly to the word "bacca," "a fruit having seeds."

Teacher floored and Tommy triumphant.—London Answers.

Selfish Edward III.

King Edward III of England was a great epicure, but a selfish one. While he gorged himself with a multitude of courses and dishes, he forbade his servants eating meat or fish more than once a day and ordained by law that none of his subjects should have at dinner or supper more than two courses nor above three dishes for each course.

It Has Been Done.

"Do you suppose that any sort of cultivation can change a fruit tree into a nut tree?" asked Cawker.

"I should think not," replied Cumso. "But see how the jokers have changed George Washington's cherry tree into a chestnut."—Harper's Bazar.

Of a Truth.

"Seven dollars and fifty cents for a book like that!" exclaimed the young man, putting his purse back in his pocket. "Why, that costs like sin!"

"My young friend," said the elderly book agent, "there is nothing that costs like sin."—Chicago Tribune.

It was stated authoritively in Washington Saturday that the visit to that city of the committee of the Kentucky republicans has not caused the administration to change the policy it had settled upon regarding the whole Kentucky controversy.

SCROFULA AND ITS AWFUL HORRORS

—CURED BY—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

A MOST WONDERFUL CURE.

A Grand Old Lady Gives Her Experience.

Mrs. Thankful Orilla Hurd lives in the beautiful village of Brighton, Livingston Co., Mich. This venerable and highly respected lady was born in the year 1812, the year of the great war, in Hebron, Washington Co., New York. She came to Michigan in 1840, the year of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too." All her faculties are excellently preserved, and possessing a very retentive memory, her mind is full of interesting reminiscences of her early life, of the early days of the State of Michigan and the interesting and remarkable people she has met, and the stirring events of which she was a witness. But nothing in her varied and manifold recollections are more marvelous and worthy of attention than are her experiences in the use of JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA. Mrs. Hurd inherited a tendency and predisposition to scrofula, that terribly destructive blood taint which has cursed and is cursing the lives of thousands and marking thousands more as victims of the death angel. Transmitted from generation to generation, it is found in nearly every family in one form or another. It may make its appearance in dreadful running sores, in unsightly swellings in the neck or goitre, or in eruptions of varied forms. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may be known as catarrh in the head, or developing in the lungs it may be, and often is, the prime cause of consumption.

Speaking of her case, Mrs. Hurd says: "I was troubled for many years with a bad skin disease. My arms and limbs would break out in a mass of sores, discharging yellow matter. My neck began to swell and became very unsightly in appearance. My body was covered with scrofulous eruptions. My eyes were also greatly inflamed and weakened, and they pained me very much. My blood was in a very bad condition and my head ached severely at frequent intervals, and I had no appetite. I had sores also in my ears. I was in a miserable condition, I had tried every remedy that had been recommended, and doctor after doctor had failed. One of the best physicians in the state told me I must die of scrofulous consumption, as internal abcesses were beginning to form. I at length was told of Dr. Johnston, of Detroit, and his famous Sarsaparilla. I tried a bottle, more as an experiment than anything else, as I had no faith in it, and greatly to my agreeable surprise, I began to grow better. You can be sure I kept on taking it. I took a great many bottles. But I steadily improved until I became entirely well. All the sores healed up, all the bad symptoms disappeared. I gained perfect health, of 83 years is not a young woman, but I have had remarkably good health since then, and I firmly believe that JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA is the greatest blood purifier and the best medicine in the wide world, both for scrofula and as a spring medicine." This remarkably interesting lady did not lok to be more than sixty, and she repeated several times, "I believe my life was saved by JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA."

The fetishism of savage Africa makes us shudder, and fills us with disgust. Yet we have fetishes of our own, one of them great, widely-worshipped, and in whose name crimes innumerable are daily perpetrated. The name of that fetish is Ignorance.

To that powerful fetish thousands of mothers annually make sacrifice of their daughters. For what is it but a sacrifice to the fetish Ignorance to permit girls to blossom to womanhood, and enter the marriage relation without one helpful hint of the obligations of that relation and its physical perils?

Just the word which the mother fails to speak would turn the young girls attention to the danger of irregularity. For it is in the ignorance of the necessity for regularity in the periods that the foundation is laid for the debilitating drains, the female weakness, bearing-down pains, inflammation and ulceration that rob marriage of joy and motherhood of happiness.

That "God-send for women" as women have named it, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, establishes regularity of the periods, dries up all unhealthy drains, cures female disease, and inflammation and ulceration of the peculiarly feminine organs.

Women suffering from diseases peculiarly feminine, may consult Dr. R. V. Pierce, by letter at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, absolutely without charge or fee. Each letter is opened in strict privacy, read as sacredly confidential and to preserve the seal of confidence unbroken, all replies are sent in plain envelopes, bearing no single word of printed matter.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, Iowa, Dec. 14.

No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

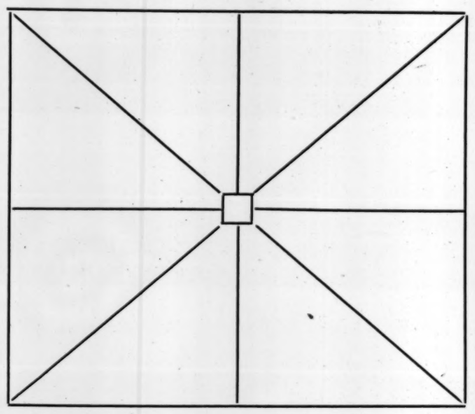
GOOD ROADS MEETING.

The Following Letter, Which Explains Itself, Was Prepared to be Distributed.

To the Executive Committee of the various townships, postmasters and other interested parties:

At a meeting of the Goods Roads Club of Guilford, held at the court house Monday, February 5th, 1900, it was resolved to publish a circular showing the advantage of good roads, and also a statement showing how a bond issue of $300,000 could be made with no increase of taxes above the present authorized rate. You will please examine these papers carefully and if you agree with us, please sign the enclosed petition and become a member of the Good Roads Club, and get all in your neighborhood to become members of the same by signing the petition.

Desirous of extending the benefits of good roads to all the people of Guilford at the same time, the following plan of building the proposed macadam roads has been adopted by the committee:



By reference to the diagram above it will be seen that eight macadam roads will leave Greensboro as a central point and penetrate the county in diverging directions, following almost invariably existing lines of roads, many of which have been graded with a view to converting them into permanent roads Very few changes in re-locating are needed; only at such places as an engineer would deem absolutely essential. Two of the roads shown on the diagram are each eleven miles in length, (measuring, of course, from the city limits to the county lines); two are about thirteen miles, and four are about eighteen miles, making in all about 120 miles of road, which can easily be built at a cost of about $240,000, leaving over $100,000 for the building of branch roads, which will be necessary at many points.

The accompanying circular sets forth a financial plan for the building of these roads. In connection with the statements therein it should be borne in mind that the people of the county are now subject to a levy of 15 cents on the $100 valuation to maintain a system of mud roads. The amount collected on this basis is inadequate, and soon we will be taxed 20 cents on the $100 for the purpose of continuing this antiquated system. Under the plan proposed by this organization the tax levy will not be increased, while we will have the manifold advantages of permanent roads. No one will attempt to urge that it is better to pay 20 cents on the $100 valuation for mud roads than 15 cents for macadam roads.

This organization proposes that three miles of macadam shall be laid on each of these radiating roads the first year, and three or more miles shall be added each year thereafter until the county lines are reached. By this plan the people of the county will share equitably in the benefits to be derived from good roads, and no section of the county will be improved at the expense of the other. At least five road-making outfits will be required to carry out the plans of this organization, it being understood that the work is to be carried on simultaneously on several roads. Greensboro is just now beginning an expenditure of $300,000 for public improvements. One-fourth of that sum is apportioned for street improvement alone, which will build macadmized streets reaching to the city limits at all points where these eight radiating roads enter.

The expenditure of $300,000 in Greensboro and a like amount in the county, practically all of which will be outside capital brought in here for investment, would give an impetus to business that would be felt for years.

Since no good thing comes to us without effort, and since no force in human affairs is so powerful as organized effort, it is urged that the people of each township sign the accompanying petitions and become members of the Good Roads Club. This action on their part means everything for the cause it is a momentum which will accomplish the much-to-be desired results

We want permanent roads, and we want them now. We therefore urge everyone to become members of this organization. Nothing in the way of enhancing their material interests could appeal to our people more strongly.

The above stated meeting adjourned to meet at the court house in Greensboro, N. C., Saturday, April 28, at 10 o'clock a. m Interesting addresses will be made. Please be on hand and bring the petitions with as many names of club members as possible.

Several extra copies of both circular and petition are sent you. Please send them to suitable persons in your section who will take an interest in the matter, and ask them to get as many signatures as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

STORY OF A SLAVE.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. Geo. D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle-working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run-down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by C. E. drogist.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition tion. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Champion James J. Jeffries, after considerable wire correspondence with Manager "Bill'y" Brady, Saturday finally announced that only McCoy, Sharkey and Fitzsimmons will be barred in selecting three heavy-weights Jeffries is to meet at Tattersall's in Chicago April 5th.

Rev. E. W. Sitzer, W. Caton, N.Y., wrties: "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat. Howard Gardner.

A commercial survey of Germany during the month appears in Saturday's Tageblatt, apparently based on reliable figures. It is as follows: Germany, for the first time in history is unable to employ about a million toilers, not because of lack of work, but because of lack of food and raw stuffs.

Mrs. Calvin Zimmerman, Milesburg Pa., says: "As a speedy cure for coughs, colds, croup and sore throat One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled. It is pleasant for children to take. I heartily recommend it to mothers." It is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It cures bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and lung diseases. It will prevent consumption. CANCER Cannot be Cut Out or Removed with Plasters

No matter how often a cancerous sore is removed, another comes at or near the same point, and always in a worse form. Does not this prove conclusively that Cancer is a blood disease, and that it is folly to attempt to cure this deep-seated, dangerous blood trouble by cutting or burning out the sore, which, after all, is only an outward sign of the disease—a place of exit for the poison?

Cancer runs in families through many generations, and those whose ancestors have been afflicted with it are liable at any time to be stricken with the deadly malady.

Only Blood Diseases can be Transmitted from One Generation to Another

—further proof that Cancer is a disease of the blood.

To cure a blood disease like this you must cure the entire blood system—remove every trace of the poison. Nothing cures Cancer effectually and permanently but S. S. S.

S. S. S. enters the circulation, searches out and removes all taint, and stops the formation of cancerous cells. No mere tonic or ordinary blood medicine can do this. S. S. S. goes down to the very roots of the disease, and forces out the deadly poison, allowing the sore to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. at the same time purifies the blood and builds up the general health.

A little pimple, a harmless looking wart or mole, a lump in the breast, a cut or bruise that refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, should all be looked upon with suspicion, as this is often the beginning of a bad form of cancer.

Mrs. Sarah M. Keesling, 941 Windsor Ave., Bristol, Tenn., writes: "I am 41 years old, and for three years had suffered with a severe form of Cancer on my jaw, which the doctors in this city said was incurable, and that I could not live more than six months. I accepted their statement as true, and had given up all hope of ever being well again, when my druggist, knowing of my condition, recommended S. S. S. After taking a few bottles the sore began to heal, much to the surprise of the physicians, and in a short time made a complete cure. I have gained in flesh, my appetite is splendid, sleep is refreshing—in fact, am enjoying perfect health."

Our medical department is in charge of physicians of long experience, who are especially skilled in treating Cancer and other blood diseases. Write for any advice or information wanted, we make no charge whatever for this service. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

During the early part of October, 1896, I contracted a bad cold, which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. MORE FRIGHT THAN FIRE.

The fire alarm was turned in this morning about 11 o'clock from box 15, and in a jiffy the fire department was on hand, searching for a fire in the Benbow, which is nearly ready to be opened. Smoke in considerable volume was issuing from the basement windows and from windows above ground. Investigation showed that the smoke came from a stove in the basement, in which a fire had just been made. The flue was choked up with soot and debris and the smoke puffed back into the room and found exit through every small crevice, and attracted attention from the outside, hence the alarm was turned in.

There was much excitement for a few minutes, but the real cause was discovered before any hose was laid or water turned on, and there is no damage beyond the knocking off of a small section of plastering in the basement room. It has been only a few months since the old Benbow was destroyed, and now when the new Benbow is about ready for opening to the public the prospect of another conflagration there brought a large crowd on the scene in a hurry to aid, if possible, in preventing another such disaster.

BASEBALL SATURDAY.

The attendance at the ball park Saturday afternoon was not large, but the keenest interest was manifested in the game between Guilford College and the North Carolina School for the Deaf, of Morganton, in which Guilford won in a close score of 9 to 8. Fox and Hammond formed the battery for Guilford and Crutchfield and Ramsey for the visitors. The Morganton boys started off with a rim and at the end of the first inning the score stood Morganton 4, Guilford 1. At the ending of the seventh both sides had eight runs to their credit. The eighth, first half Morganton fanned out, and in the last half Jack Love, for Guilford, knocked a two baggar, bringing a man home from third and winning the game, as in the first half of the ninth the Morganton boys hit only the air.

One member of the Guilford team, it seemed to the spectators, thought he was playing foot ball, as he made two apparently vicious collisions with the deaf players, one at second base and the other at the home plate. These attacks were the cause of changing the sympathies of the crowd to the deaf boys. It must be said to the credit of the young man from Guilford, however, that he apologized to the Morganton boys and disclaimed any intent to do a foul act. The reporter was reminded of the demand of a prominent educator recently heard at a meeting in this city: "We must have pure athletics or none at all." This idea should be strongly impressed upon the minds of those who indulge in the games.

Oak Ridge won in her game Saturday with the University, as told in a dispatch in these columns. This is a splendid start, and all eyes will now be turned on Oak Ridge, as she beat everything in the state last year except the University, and opens up this year by defeating her only successful adversary of the past season. She has placed the standard high and it will take hard work to maintain it. Some close games may be expected.

At the Sunday morning services of Westminster church the elders-elect, Messrs. S. H. Boyd and E. J. Davis, having been previously ordained, were installed. Messrs. W. S. Witherspoon and C. C. McLean were ordained and installed deacons, after which the Lord's Supper were commemorated. At the regular quarterly business meeting of the Westminster League in the evening Mr. Charles Murray was elected president, Miss Johnsie Rankin secretary, and Miss Nettie Murray treasurer. The Westminster League has purchased and sent to the Cuban mission at Cardenas a small organ which will be greatly appreciated by the mission.

At the First Presbyterian church there was no sermon yeste day on account of the hoarseness of the pastor. The morning service was occupied by the ordination and installation of the new ruling elders and deacons recently elected.

At night Rev. Mr. Seabrook was advertised to preach, but owing to the inclement weather and an attack of the grip he could not preach and there were no services.

At Centenary church there was a small congregation, owing to the unpaved and muddy streets and walks in that part of town. At 11 o'clock Rev. Mr. Wagg preached an earnest sermon, taking for his theme "Christ crucified." There were no night services.

Last night at West Washington street Baptist church Pastor Johnson made a most practical talk on the mission of the Holy Spirit. His sermon was directed mainly to the sinner, but was one to which the christian could listen with profit and encouragement.

As had been previously announced, there was no preaching at West Market street church yesterday morning, but the Lord's supper was administered instead. At night Dr. Rowe preached from 2 Chronicles 26:5. He preached along the line of thought suggested by the text, that a Christian had the right to expect God to prosper His followers; but that a person could not expect God to become a partner in a business that was not righteous.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather the congregations, both morning and night, were unusually small.

At Grace Methodist Protestant church the pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnson, has been given several weeks' leave of absence that he may secure a much needed physical rest. Rev. J. F. McCulloch, editor of Our Church Record, preached yesterday morning on the "Helps and Hindrances to a Christian Life". He showed that some things which man at first thought would consider helps are really hindrances, and vice versa. Many practical truths were declared, the application of which to the Christian life cannot fail to enlarge and enrich such a life. The choir and Sunday school are preparing the usual Easter service. The addition of Miss Maude Hunter's voice strengthens the choir materially. On next Sunday the president of the conference, Rev. W. F. Kennett, is expected to make his official visit.

LOCAL NEWS BRIEFS.

Condensed for the Benefit of Busy Telegram Readers.

George H. Royster has moved his office from the Wright building to Room 211, Southern Loan & Trust Company's building.

The city registration books are now open at the store of W. B. Young, 102 South Elm street by Registrar M. C. Workman. Four new names were added today.

Captain A. M. Fry, of Bryson City, who is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for corporation commissioner, is a son-in-law of Rev. Dr. J. C. Rowe, of this city.

The last rehearsal by the new degree team of Guilford Lodge No. 69, K. of P., was entirely satisfactory. In a short time the team will be ready for work. Then candidates will be royally received.

F. O. Lawson who is with Rees & Bond, is doing some good sign work on the windows of the Western Union Telegraph Company and Mrs. Annie Cato's millinery store in the Benbow.

Our young friend, A. G. Moore, who for five years held a position with the Fishblate-Katz company, has accepted a place as salesman with Will H. Matthews & Co., clothiers, and will be glad to have his friends call on him there.

Dr. Chas. Roberson was called yesterday to Whitsett Institute to see Mr. J. L. Stewart, a student there who has pneumonia. Mrs. Ballard also went out to nurse the case. Mr. Stewart is from Monroe and is Whitsett's pitcher this season.

People are still required to have health certificates before they can purchase tickets from this place to Durham. It is a matter of fact, however, that people buy tickets to East Durham and step off the train at Durham, and are unmolested. The farce should be called off.

There is a girl hardly sixteen years of age who puts buttons on overalls at the Hunter Manufacturing Company's. She puts on between nine and ten thousand buttons a day. This means about three million a year—seven buttons to each pair of overalls and one hundred and ten dozen a day.

Mrs. W. L. Ferrell and little son, Master Marshal Ferrel, of Winston, were here this morning going to Durham. They were accompanied by Mr. Rice Gwynn, the Winston buyer of the American Tobacco Company. Mr. W. L. Walker, manager of the leaf department of the same company, and a brother of Mrs. Ferrell, with offices at 111 Fifth Avenue, New York, was also here this morning and accompanied the party to Durham. Before leaving the entire party was taken to Clegg's by Mr. C. A. Bray where they enjoyed a good breakfast.

Mr. Ferrell, who is now under treatment for his nerves in Baltimore, is getting along nicely and expects to come home a well man.

Protracted Services.

There will be services at West Washington street at 8 o'clock tonight, and at the same hour every night the remainder of the week. Rev. J. W. Wildman, of South Boston, Va., will do the preaching. As Pastor Johnson announced last night, Mr. Wildman is a plain, earnest and simple gospel preacher, and will doubtless accomplish much good. There will be a prayer meeting every afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Quick Work.

This morning the Hunter Company sent a message by the Postal Telegraph Company to West Durham and got a reply inside of fifteen minutes. This message, of course, went by telegraph to Durham, but from there it had to go two and a half miles by phone. On receipt of an answer to this message another was sent to the same parties and a reply came in the same time. Two messages this distance inside of thirty minutes is pretty quick work.

Brooks, Diffee and Hodgin are well known hardware men, having been with the Odell Hardware Company, of this city, several years, where they will still remain. Mr. Crawford will conduct the business in Winston.

BROWN'S

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity.

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.
